

FRIDAY
OCT 11
8:30am-5:00pm

Ages 16-29!

YOUNG VOICES SUMMIT

Amplifying Young Voices

Fortifying the Family, Strengthening the Individual

Character Advocacy

How to be a Positive Advocate in a World of Contention

Dr. Tim Rarick, BYU Professor

The Power of Values

Navigating Anxiety, Depression and Identity
Janique Nielson, CMHC, CCTS

The Convergence of Faith, Family, and Sexuality

Preston Jenkins
Author, "This Boy and His Mother"

Including:
Workshops and Table
Discussions led by Young Voices

*Family Solutions to Social Problems
Safe Social Media Practices
Dealing with Heated Discussions
Who Can I Trust? How to Find Valid Information
How Did We Get So Oversexualized? How Do We Fix It?
Bridging the Boomer-Gen Z Disconnect
Protections Against Porn AND MORE!*

Premier in Layton, UTAH!
2430 N Fairfield Rd
Layton, UT 84041
Seating is limited. Get your ticket NOW!

Sign up at protectchildhealth.org/youngvoices-summit/

Ages 16-29!

YOUNG VOICES SUMMIT

FRIDAY
OCT 11
8:30am-5:00pm

Objective

AMPLIFY the voices of informed youth and young adults who are knowledgeable about the state of society in regards to healthy sexual relations, family foundations, mental illness, upholding life and core identity

- Amplifying young voices from all races, cultures and religions
- Training on how to approach and succeed at sharing truths about sexuality among peers
- Arming participants with RESOURCES
- Creating ways to spread truth among societal falsehoods.
- Focusing on “Character Advocacy”: setting a higher, more positive standard of advocacy
- Building bridges of understanding with family and friends.
- Restoring civility and decency back to civic discourse.
- Discussing healthy sexual relations, learning how to find truth, discovering core identity and values, addressing mental illness, and upholding life and family

Attend the premier in Layton, UTAH!
Seating is limited. Get your ticket now!

Sign up at

protectchildhealth.org/youngvoices-summit/

Supported by PCHC